

Friday 8th November 2019

This week we will be reading 'The Birthday Box.' We will be focusing on our celebration of our own birthdays, thinking about the month we are born and comparing which month the most children in reception are born. We will be having our own birthday tea party and focusing on vocabulary and language related to this while we role play with our friends. We will also be counting candles and putting them in cakes, talking about which cake has the most and which has the least. We are very excited to have our own 'birthday box' in each classroom and will be thinking of all of the different things that might be inside our box!

We are so impressed with how settled all of the Reception children are! We are working on developing independence, this includes the children finding their own coat peg in the morning and putting all of their bits away by themselves! Please help us support the children with developing this skill by leaving them at the door of the classroom with a Reception adult - there will be an adult at the door each day to collect your child and help them say goodbye to you there.

Vocabulary for the week...

Birthday, party, celebration, age, friends, cake, candles

Padraic is Star of the Week in Fawn Class. He has been working hard at joining in during carpet activities and has been putting in so much effort in learning his sounds in phonics.

Yaaniv is Star of the Week in Bambi class. Yaaniv is such a thoughtful and kind and learning partner and has been fantastic at setting a good example of how to behave beautifully on the carpet.

Well done!

A book will be sent home with the class teddy, please fill in the white page and stick pictures on the black page! We love hearing about how you have spent the weekend!

This week we are sending home the sounds, h,b,f,ff,l,ll,and ss - see if the children can tell you where we might find these sounds in words (eg at the beginning and end) we are also sending home the 'tricky words' to and the. Tricky words are words that you can't sound out so you just need to remember what they look like!

Our home challenge this week is to let us know all about the last birthday party that you had! You can write words, draw pictures or stick in photographs to tell us all about it!
